

HARDWARE

Canon

Canon
DR-S250N

Canon DR-S250N

The Canon DR-S250N is a versatile scanner that adapts to its operating environment. It can connect through USB and Ethernet. Its differentiating feature is browser-based scanning with a QR code, which enables the user to scan without installing an app on their mobile device.

Learn More

Kodak alaris

Kodak
Scan Station
730EX

Kodak Scan Station 730EX

The Kodak Scan Station 730EX easily integrates into the Microsoft ecosystem for simple usage and management. The 7030EX can port with Windows applications to create a scanning kiosk. Administration and security are easily managed remotely.

Learn More

EPSON®

Epson DS-770 II

The Epson DS-770 II has ample features and functionality to perform high-speed scanning for the user desktop. It scans at 45 ppm and can handle 7,000 sheets daily. For maximized uptime and peace of mind, the DS-770 II comes with a 3-year Advance Exchange warranty.

Learn More

Epson DS-770 II
Duplex Document Scanner

AMBIR™

Ambir DS687
ID Card Scanner

Ambir DS687

The Ambir DS687 ID card scanner has everything you need for mobile card scanning. It is powered by a USB cable and its compact footprint allows easy portability. Common use cases for the DS687 include mobile carts in hospitals and customer verification at banks.

Learn More

HARDWARE

Shelter
ZOOM

Shelter
ZOOM

*Protect, Control and Track
Your Vital Documents*

Document GPS from ShelterZoom

Document GPS from ShelterZoom addresses cybersecurity's greatest weak point – Email Attachments. Document GPS seamlessly integrates into email applications that allow the sender to control who can download, share, screenshot and edit email attachments. Utilizing tokenization through blockchain cryptography, Document GPS keeps emailed data secure.

Learn More

